PROLOGUE

From the day I met him when I was five years old, Shino has been my "special person". I want those eyes to look only at me. I want to make Shino my very own. I've felt that way for so long, but Shino was assigned to my school and our relationship changed to "teacher and student". These emotions that I can barely keep to myself...what should I do? Amu Sumoto presents a sweet, yet taboo, love story.

Congratulations for all sorts of reasons!
Thank you for supervising me.

For the readers of the magazine and comic,

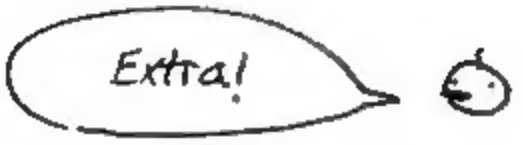
all of my family (especially Grandma),

for those who continuously read Cheese!, and those who have bought this comic,

I'll keep on striving to draw! Yay!!
Summer is tremendously hot, but please keep well!!

See you again!

Autumn 2004 Sumoto Amu



◆ Since there's pages left, I'm going to write something. I thought about drafting a short gag, title, Passionate Dectective.

I had this in mind since volume three of megane-kun, but I didn't have a chance to do it. And no, it wasn't much.

Since there are very few pages left, perhaps next time. Please look forward to it!!

About Yoru Koi

I looked back on the originals while the comic was being published. It seemed like it had been a long time since I first wrote it. I guess that's how busy I've been, but it really wasn't that long ago.

Since it was the work after megane, I had a prolonged discussion with my supervisor and finally came to this. Yoru Koi! Come to think of it, it's so different from the initial story I thought up.

For example:

I tried all sorts of things, but finally gave up on that idea.

It would have been scary. It was too detached from a shoujo manga (laugh).

Thank God I gave that up. Supervisor, I'm sorry I made you worry over that.

He was supposed to have been mei's elder brother.

About Megane-kun

This feels nostalgic. I wanted to write about them in middle school. Since Megane-kun has ended, wow—it feels great. If I have the opportunity, then perhaps I'll continue it... Let's see about that.

The Recent Sumoto-san

My supervisor has changed. My supervisor now is the one who supervised me on Kowashitaihodo Aisaretai. Good to see her again, but she's very strict (laugh).

For my next work, I've written a real shoujo manga-like short story. Oh, my! It's very different from Megane-kun. If you have the chance, please read it. Oh, my writing... It's been a while since I've drawn any colored works, so my hands are all numb. This is bad.

I'm sorry. It's kinda like that.

Now then, see you soon.
